

Daily Announcements for January 9, 2019

Good morning North County!!! Here are your daily announcements with Shally and Esteban!!

- North Monterey County Community Alliance is creating a logo and your design could be picked to represent the Alliance! We are especially interested in showcasing the talent of our young adult community talent that makes North Monterey County special and unique through a logo contest. The contest is open to all 9th - 12th graders. Designs are due to Mrs. Lowensen by this Friday, January 11. Please see her in her room for the paperwork you need if you are creative and interested in having your artwork used as the logo for this worthwhile community group.
- Our Dodgeball Tournament is coming next week. We currently have 2 teams signed up but are hoping for more to make it more fun and entertaining. There will be a table in the forum this week on today and tomorrow to get paperwork and it is all due by Friday of this week. Games will be in the gym during lunch on Wednesday and Thursday of next week!
- Seniors - if you don't have a class color shirt, or just want another one, you are in luck. Class of 2019 class shirts are now on clearance!! The tie-dye style is on sale for only $10 and the regular purple shirt is only $5. Remember we have 3 more rallies and also Powder Puff coming up, so get your class shirts in the Finance Office now.

- Tomorrow, January 10 is our Girl's Basketball Spirit Game. Come on out and watch our Lady Condors play Watsonville at 5:30 and 7.
- On Tuesday, January 15 we will be celebrating National Hat Day here at North County! Wear your favorite headgear to celebrate! Yes, you are allowed to wear college and professional sport team hats for this day only, but NO inappropriate hats allowed or they will be taken away.
- On Tuesday, January 22 the Cheer Competition Team is having a fundraiser at Round Table Pizza in Castroville. A percentage of all pizza bought that day will be donated to our team on their way to Nationals. See a cheerleader for a flyer.
- Reminder to Link Crew leaders our monthly meeting is today during 4th period in the forum.
- Attention Seniors - There are only 14 spots left for Grad Night and then the buses are full. Please get your deposit in this week to make sure you don't miss out on this once in a lifetime trip. Also, your second payment of $50 is due by Friday of this week. Please make your payments in the Finance Office
- Interact Club meeting today at lunch in room 2. Many of you have been missing meetings and we have important planning to do for the semester, please make sure to come and be a part of it.
- There is no English tutoring this week. English tutoring will resume next week, every Tuesday and Thursday, after school from 3:15 to 5:00 pm.

- Attention Students: All work permits issued last semester will expire this Friday, January 11th. In order to keep working, please bring in a new work permit form to the library media center to Ms. Araceli Cuentas
- Scholarship of the Day! THE RICHARD G. ZIMMERMAN JOURNALISM SCHOLARSHIP The National Press Club is pleased to announce that the late Richard G. Zimmerman, a member of long standing, has endowed a significant scholarship in aid of high school seniors who wish to pursue a career in journalism. Recipients will receive a non-renewable award of $5,000. The Richard G. Zimmerman scholarship is open to all high school seniors, regardless of gender or race. Applicants must have a 3.0-grade average and plan to attend college Fall 2019.
